Mr. Riddleberger continuing, said he was now done with that subject. He had resented what he considered a gross indignity, and was satisfied. He then went on to discuss the thirty-minute limitation rule submitted by the committee work of special private in-

THE GLOBE'S HOWL. The Globe this afternoon says it fears that purveyors of objectionable literature may now (that the government has decided not to prosecute the Pale Mall transite) reckon on immunity. Unless, observes the trious, the late gigantic outrage on decency to escape, it is hard to see how any similar offense can be punished hereafter if the publishers profess to be animated by a burning zeal for public morality.

A Big Day at Brighton Beach. CINCINNATI, July 15 .- Cincinnati, 13;

NEW YORK, July 15.—The attendance at Brighton Beach in honor of the Bartholdi statue was the largest ever seen within the enclosure. The day was fair, the racing excellent and the buildings tastefully decorated with the flags of all nations. The great events of the day were the heats run for the Liberty Handicap, which resulted, after two heats had been run, in a dead heat between Belle been run, in a dead heat between Belle
B. and Norena, the latter winning the "run off" amidst the greatest excitement.
First Race.—World's Purse, for maidens, all ages, non-winners allowed weight; them to stand the siege, in case of a protracted strike. Both sides seem to be settling down for a contest of endurance.

**East Sadixaw, Mich.**

**Liest Is practically no change in the situation this morning, which has resolved itself simply into a question of endurance. The mill-owners, who were weak hised at first owing to the lack of the local authorities in projectly protecting person and property, have been braced up by the presence of the Pinkerton men and State troops, and the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the millowners in Bay City, yesterday, fully cover the situation here.

**Outbreak at Cleveland.**

**CLEVELAND, O., July 15.—Seven hundred Polish and Bohemian strikers attacked the plate mill in Newburgh tonight, which was in operation. Fifty policemen met them, and a fight case and shour thirty-five strikers were badly clubbed. Five of the ringleaders were arrested, and one of them is perhaps to third. The project of the ringleaders were arrested, and one of them is perhaps to third. Time—1:83. The second Race.—Bartholdi Purse, for all ages, selling allowances, oile and one-field. Everything is quiet at this time.
